DEFINITION OF SPOUSE UNDER APPLICABLE PENSION LEGISLATION

Federal: Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (applies to employees in the Northwest Territories, Yukon, Nunavut, and of federally regulated Employers such as banking, transportation and communications)

“spouse” means the person who is married to the member or is party to a void marriage with the member.

“common-law partner” means a person who is cohabiting with the member in a conjugal relationship, having so cohabited for a period of at least one year.

ALBERTA: Employment Pension Plans Act

“pension partner” means (i) a person who, at the relevant time, was married to the member and had not been living separate and apart from the member for 3 or more consecutive years, or (ii) if there is no person to whom subclause (i) applies, a person who, immediately preceding the relevant time, had lived with the member in a conjugal relationship

(a) for a continuous period of at least 3 years, or

(b) of some permanence if there is a child of the relationship by birth or adoption.

BRITISH COLUMBIA: Pension Benefits Standards Act

“spouse” means (a) a person who at the relevant time was married to the member and not living separate and apart from the member for longer than the 2-year period immediately preceding the relevant time; or (b) if (a) does not apply, a person who was living and cohabiting with the member in a marriage-like relationship, including a marriage-like relationship between persons of the same gender, and who had been living and cohabiting in that relationship for a period of at least 2 years immediately preceding the relevant time.

MANITOBA: Pension Benefits Act

“spouse” means either of two persons who is married to the member. The definition of spouse includes a common-law partner. A common-law partner of a member or former member is (a) a person who, with the member or former member, registered a common-law relationship under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act, or b) person who not being married to the member or former member, cohabited with him or her in a conjugal relationship (a) for a period of not less than 3 years, if either or them is married; or (b) for a period of not less than one year if neither or them is married.

NEW BRUNSWICK: Pension Benefits Act

“spouse” means either of two persons who (a) are married to each other, (b) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been avoided by a declaration of nullity, or (c) have gone through a form of marriage with each other in good faith that is void and have cohabited within the preceding year,

“common-law partner” means (a) in the case of the death of a member or former member, a person who, not being married to the member, was cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member at the time of death of the member or former member and was cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member for a continuous period of at least two years immediately before the death of the member or former member, (b) in the case of the breakdown of the common-law partnership, a person who, not being married to the member or former member, was cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member for a continuous period of at least two years immediately before the date of the breakdown of the common-law partnership, or (c) in any other case, a person who, not being married to a member or former member at the particular time under consideration, is cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member at that time and who has so cohabited for a continuous period of at least two years immediately before that time;

NEWFOUNDLAND: Pension Benefits Act, 1997

“spouse” means a person who (i) is married to the member or former member, (ii) is married to the member or the former member by a marriage that is voidable and has not been voided by a judgment of nullity, or (iii) has gone through a form of a marriage with the member or former member, in good faith, that is void and is cohabiting or has cohabited with the member or former member within the preceding year.

“cohabiting partner”(i) in relation to a member or former member who has a spouse, means a person who is not the spouse of the member or former member who has cohabited continuously with the member or former member in a conjugal relationship for not less than 3 years, or (ii) in relation to a member or former member who does not have a spouse, means a person who has cohabited continuously with the member or former member in a conjugal relationship for not less than 1 year, and is cohabiting or has cohabited with the member or former member within the preceding year. Same sex spouses are covered under the definition of cohabiting partner.

NOVA SCOTIA: Pension Benefits Act

“spouse” means either a man or woman who: (a) are married to each other; (b) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been annulled; (c) have gone through a form of marriage with each other, in good faith, that is void and are cohabiting or, if they have ceased to cohabit, have cohabited within the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of entitlement.

“common-law partner” means an individual who has cohabitated with the member in a conjugal relationship for at least two years, neither of whom is a spouse. Same sex spouses are included under common-law partners.

ONTARIO: Pension Benefits Act

“spouse” means either a man or woman who: (a) are married to each other; (b) are not married to each other and are living together in a conjugal relationship, (i) continuously for a period of not less than three years, or (ii) in a relationship of some permanence, if they are the natural or adoptive parents of a child, both as defined in the Family Law Act.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND: Pension Benefits legislation is not in force.

QUEBEC: Supplemental Pension Plans Act

“spouse” means a person who: (a) is married to or in a civil union with the member; (b) has been living in a conjugal relationship with a member who is neither married nor in a civil union, whether the person is of the opposite or the same sex, for a period of not less than three years; or (c) has been living in a conjugal relationship with an unmarried member for not less than one year if, (i) at least one child is born, or to be born, of their union, (ii) they have jointly adopted at least one child while living together in a conjugal relationship, or (iii) one of them has adopted at least one child who is the child of the other, while living together in a conjugal relationship.

SASKATCHEWAN: The Pension Benefits Act, 1992

“spouse” means (a) a person who is married to a member or former member; or, (b) if a member or former member is not married, a person with whom the member or former member is cohabiting as spouses at the relevant time and who has been cohabiting continuously with the member or former member as her or his spouse for at least one year prior to the relevant time. Same sex spouses are included under the definition of spouse.
